JUDGMENT

The petitioners are aggrieved by the proceedings taken by the Principal of the respondent-College in the matter of levy of liquidated damages on the ground that they discontinued the course under the college after the closure of appointments. According to the petitioners, the college has not sustained any loss. It is also submitted that they left the college only on higher option and hence no damages can be levied. Still further it is submitted that this Court has already considered a similar case where it has been held that the student leaving the Institution on higher option is not liable to pay the liquidated damages. Though these contentions are refuted by the learned counsel appearing for the University, since the action is only at the level of Principal, I am of the view that the petitioner should pursue his grievance before the University since the college as such is managed by University.

2. In the event of the petitioners approaching the 3rd respondent-University within a period of two months from today, the matter will be duly considered by the said authority with notice to the petitioner and appropriate orders thereon in accordance with law in the matter will be passed after adverting to the contentions taken by the petitioner within another four months.

These writ petitions are disposed of as above.

KURIAN JOSEPH, JUDGE.
